(4) The notice of sale duly published is placed on the Council table.

(5) Placed on the Council table.

(6) A copy of the petition is placed on the Council table.

(i) Tahsildar of Cochin-Kanayannur.

b. The local Village officers and a Taluk clerk.

c. Edavanakkad Village office.

(ii) Nil.

(iii) Section 61.

(iv) a. Rs. 2—7—0 before demand notice was served on the party. There were, however, no arrears when the Parvathyam submitted the proclamation for sale of lands.

b. 28th Dhanu 1103.

c. Parvathyam of Edavanakad.

(v) a. Yes.

b. 20th Karkadagam 1103.

c. Published in the Gazette dated 27th Karkadagam 1103.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—May I know whether it was the same Parvathyam Gopala Panikkar who received the amount on the 28th of Dhanu 1103 and who submitted all the previous processes.

Mr T. M. Krishna Menon.—I do not follow you.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—From the answer it appears the amount of land revenue was paid on 28th of Dhanu 1103. From all the previous papers placed on the Council Table it will be found that one Gopala Panikkar was the Parvathyam who submitted all the previous processes necessary in this matter. Was this amount paid to that Gopala Panikkar ?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—I want notice.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—May I know whether any action was taken against this Gopala Panikkar ?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—None that I am aware of.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Did not the Tahsildar know at the time the sale was conducted that the arrears were still due ?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—Apparently not.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Still they conducted the sale?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—Without knowing the real facts.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—So they were ignorant of the fact that there were arrears?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—There was some complication about that matter which requires explanation. This is a matter of adjustment. Some amount was paid on the 28th and it was wrongly adjusted by the Parvathiam and by that wrong adjustment some arrears became due. Had they been rightly adjusted there would have been no arrears.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Is he not the same Parvathyam who submitted the subsequent process of 7th Kumbham and other dates and who received the amount?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—On that point I already said I want notice.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—May I know on whose petition the sale subsequently set aside.

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—On the mortgagee's petition.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Was there any petition from the Pattayadar to set aside the sale ?

Mr T. M. Krishna Menon.—I do not think there was.

Collection of outstandings due to Co operative Societies.

12. Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) (1) what were the outstandings with the names of the Co-operative Societies, entrusted to be collected by the Cochin Central Co-operative Bank on account of the supply of registers, forms, etc., made by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies from purchases made under advances recoverable ; (2) who collected these amounts and what were the dates of such collections; (3) what are the outstandings under this head now ;

(b) (1) whether the Registrar has collected Rs. 47—3—2 from Karikode Co-operative Society after the business of the stock was transferred to the Central Bank ; (2) if so, why did he collect this amount and (3) what is his explanation for the same;

(c) whether the Registrar has supplied registers, etc., to the Padiyur Co-operative Society ; if so, when and how much was due on that account and who paid the amount on that account;

(d) whether the Co-operative Inspector who was the liquidator of the Trippunittura Co-operative Stores, Ltd., had collected money towards the cost of the registers supplied to the Society; if so, what was done with that amount?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—(a) 1 to 3. The Member is referred to the statement placed on the Council table.

(b) (1) Yes. (2) and (3). When the stock was transferred to the Central Bank a few items of dues to be cleared by the department were left over for payment by the Registrar himself

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly